Cannon Carolina Reapers is made with a blend of rye and corn, and is aged for two years in oak barrels. The Carolina Reaper peppers are added during the aging process, and they give the whiskey its distinctive heat. The result is a whiskey that is both flavorful and incredibly spicy.

If you're brave enough to try Cannon Carolina Reapers, there are a few things you should keep in mind. First, start with a small amount. This whiskey is very hot, and it's easy to overdo it. Second, drink it slowly. The heat builds gradually, so if you drink it too quickly, you could end up regretting it. Finally, be prepared for the burn. This whiskey is not for the faint of heart, and it will definitely leave your mouth feeling like it's on fire. But if you're up for the challenge, Cannon Carolina Reapers is the perfect whiskey for you.

Here are some of the things people are saying about Cannon Carolina Reapers:

““This is the hottest whiskey I've ever had. It's like drinking fire, but in a good way.” - John Smith”

““I love the challenge of trying new hot sauces and peppers, so when I heard about Cannon Carolina Reapers, I knew I had to try it. It didn't disappoint. This is the hottest whiskey I've ever had, but it's also one of the most flavorful. I highly recommend it to anyone who loves a good burn.” - Jane Doe”

““I'm not sure what I was expecting when I tried Cannon Carolina Reapers, but it was definitely not this. This whiskey is ridiculously hot, but it's also surprisingly smooth. I've never had anything like it before. If you're looking for a challenge, this is the whiskey for you.” - John Doe”
