When she inherits a rundown inn on the outskirts of Willow Creek, she sees it as a chance to escape her troubles and start anew.

As Sarah and her family arrive at The Misfit Inn, they encounter a cast of quirky and endearing characters who become their extended family. There's Milly, the eccentric elderly woman with a penchant for knitting mismatched socks; Tom, the enigmatic handyman with a troubled past; and Jake, the rugged mountain rescue ranger who ignites a spark within Sarah.

Together, they navigate the challenges of renovating the inn, forging new friendships, and finding love in the most unexpected places. Along the way, they learn the true meaning of family, the importance of embracing their imperfections, and the transformative power of kindness.
