Features

The Nikon D3200 is a feature-packed DSLR camera that offers something for everyone. Some of its most notable features include:

- 24.2-megapixel CMOS sensor: The D3200's high-resolution sensor captures stunning images with excellent detail and clarity.
- EXPEED 3 image processor: Nikon's EXPEED 3 image processor provides fast and efficient image processing, resulting in sharp and vibrant photos.
- 11-point autofocus system: The D3200's 11-point autofocus system ensures fast and accurate focusing, even in low-light conditions.
- 4 frames per second continuous shooting: The D3200 can capture up to 4 frames per second in continuous shooting mode, making it ideal for capturing fast-moving subjects.
- 1080p Full HD video recording: The D3200 can record Full HD 1080p video at 30 frames per second, making it a great choice for videographers.
- Built-in Wi-Fi and NFC: The D3200 features built-in Wi-Fi and NFC, making it easy to share your photos and videos with others.

Performance

The Nikon D3200 is a great performer, especially considering its affordable price point. It produces sharp and detailed images with excellent color accuracy and dynamic range. The D3200 also handles low-light conditions well, thanks to its high ISO performance.

In terms of video, the D3200 can record Full HD 1080p video at 30 frames per second. The video footage is of good quality, with good detail and color accuracy. However, the D3200 does not have a built-in microphone, so you will need to use an external microphone if you want to record audio with your videos.

Pricing

The Nikon D3200 is available for around $500. This includes the camera body only. If you need a lens, you will need to purchase one separately. There are a variety of lenses available for the D3200, so you can choose one that fits your needs and budget.

Choosing the Right Lens

The Nikon D3200 is compatible with a wide range of lenses, so you can choose one that fits your needs and budget. Some of the most popular lenses for the D3200 include:

- Nikon AF-S DX Nikkor 18-55mm f/3.5-5.6G VR II: This is a versatile zoom lens that is perfect for everyday photography.
- Nikon AF-S DX Nikkor 35mm f/1.8G: This is a great lens for portraits and low-light photography.
- Nikon AF-S DX Nikkor 55-200mm f/4-5.6G ED VR II: This is a telephoto zoom lens that is great for wildlife and sports photography.

The Nikon D3200 is a great DSLR camera for beginners and enthusiasts alike. It offers a great combination of features, performance, and affordability. If you're looking for a versatile and user-friendly camera that can produce stunning images, the D3200 is a great choice.
